- Open days – students can book onto these and independently go to these open days.
 - Information can be found through individual college websites, logonmove on and will be advertised through school.
- Pastoral support to those that need it

All students apply to college through log on move on (exception Selby)

We have a hold on the applications, which means we can vet them/ check them before they are submitted

Using this website allows us to keep a record of applications and allows us to quickly identify students that need support with their application.

Resources on logon move on. Students have a log on and password

As parents you can also access a lot of resources and information on the website
